Dear Jeff:

Re: Salvation II

She is one of the best boats afloat and provided us with five years of an experience of a lifetime. It was painful to give her up and come back to land, but we felt we had to build our new home now while there were still good contractors in our remote area.

Salvation II's new owner is as excited about her as we were and we are going on a several day orientation/training cruise with him in early March.

We want to thank Don Kohlmann for his outstanding job marketing Salvation II and shepherding her through the sales process. It makes selling a home look easy. In short, I would advise any owner, "When it comes time to sell your Nordhavn, take it to Nordhavn."

Sincerely,

Frank H. Hilton, Jr.
